

U.S. Capitol Memorial Service to Honor Chairman Tom Lantos Tomorrow

Washington, D.C. – Speaker Nancy Pelosi will be among those who deliver remarks at a memorial service in the Capitol tomorrow morning, Thursday, February 14, honoring the life of Foreign Affairs Committee Chairman Tom Lantos, who died on Monday.

Other speakers include Mrs. Annette Lantos and other family members, Members of Congress, Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Secretary-General of the United Nations Ban ki-Moon, Bono, and others.

WHAT: Memorial service honoring Chairman Tom Lantos

WHEN: Thursday, February 14, at 10 a.m.

WHERE: Statuary Hall, The Capitol
Washington, D.C.

Prelude: The United States Army Band String Quartet

Welcome: Mr. Tomicah Tillemann, Grandson

Reading: Rabbi Arthur Schneier

Tributes: Mrs. Annette Lantos

The Honorable Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House
Mrs. Annette Tillemann-Dick, Daughter

Musical Selection: Mrs. Charity Sunshine Tillemann-Dick, Granddaughter

Tributes: The Honorable Condoleezza Rice, Secretary of State

Her Excellency Tzipi Livni, Foreign Minister of Israel
Dr. Katrina Swett, Daughter

The Honorable Steny Hoyer, Majority Leader
His Excellency Ban ki-Moon, Secretary-General of the United Nations
The Honorable Joseph Biden, United States Senator
The Honorable Christopher Shays, Member of Congress
Bono, Musician and Human Rights Activist
Mrs. Chelsea Hedquist, Granddaughter
Mr. Tomicah Tillemann, Grandson
Mr. Elie Wiesel, Nobel Peace Laureate

Benediction: Rabbi Arthur Schneier